

NEW YORK MEN BUY 500,000-ACRE LEASE

Roswell Oil Development Company Disposes of Enormous Amount of Oil Lease Acreage.

NEW MEXICO TO DEVELOP

Today's Deal Indicates Beginning of Real Oil Activity in That Section of the Country.

Special to The World.

ROSWELL, N. M., Oct. 17.—A deal which, it is believed, marks the beginning of the real development of oil in eastern New Mexico was closed today when H. A. Roswell of Los Angeles, on behalf of the National Exploration company of New York City, purchased more than 500,000 acres of leases from the Roswell Oil Development company.

The Roswell Oil Development company is comprised of local stockholders who pooled leases and obtained a geological survey from Dorey Hager and A. Edmund Robinson, who have been working in the field since last January for the local company. The purchase price was not definitely announced but it involves several hundred thousand dollars. The holdings are in Chaves, El Paso, and Lincoln counties. The National Exploration company was represented in the deal by its general manager, Milton J. Hager, who also vice president of the Commonwealth Petroleum corporation, D. C. Howard, an attorney at Charleston, W. Va., and A. H. Anderson, controller of the National Exploration company. The National Exploration company has only recently been incorporated, mainly for this New Mexico tract. Its origin here are the same eastern capitalists who formed the Commonwealth Petroleum corporation and the Union Oil company of Delaware. The Commonwealth Petroleum corporation a few months ago acquired the holdings of the United Western Union Oil company and the head drilling company of California and has also been active in obtaining valuable properties in Texas and Wyoming. The Union Oil company of Delaware only recently took over the holdings of the vast Union Oil company of California and the Columbia Oil Producing company of California.

Both of these companies are existing on development on a large scale at present. The directors of the National Exploration company are also all directors in either the Commonwealth or the Union Oil company.

The holdings which the new company acquired today by purchase from the Roswell Oil Development company were all investigated by a group of well known geologists, including Dorey Hager and Edmund A. Robinson. This deal has been pending for weeks and was closed only after the most careful investigation by the purchasing company, H. E. Hagen, representing Mr. Roswell, has been in Roswell and in the field for more than six months. The contract of the purchasing company carries with it the obligation to drill four wells within a year, and a number of others in the near future. The company has a month ago acquired 25,000 acres near Phoenix, in Arizona, and is now of here, and has commenced active work there. Contracts have been made for the erection of the buildings and other needed work on this site.

While it has not been definitely announced it is understood that the plan of the purchasing company contemplates active drilling operations in the oil fields. The Roswell Oil Development company was represented by its president, W. C. Lawrence, secretary, A. H. Rockefeller, J. J. Jaffe, treasurer, and the other directors of the company, W. A. Johnson, R. P. Johnson, Frank Talmadge, H. P. Royle, Harry Thorne and E. G. Minton.

LONGSHOREMEN'S STRIKE STILL TIES UP GOTHAM

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Despite the fact that some of the local unions return to work, the longshoremen's strike continues virtually to tie up the port of New York. At the offices of the United States railroad administration today it was said numerous complaints were being received from western merchants in regard to the shipping situation. Officials of the International Mercantile Marine said that 25 big cargo ships were lying idle and none of the strikers had returned to work.

The United States railroad administration today announced that the embargo against transatlantic shipping through this port is still in force, and that it would not be lifted until a settlement of the strike was nearer at hand. Shipping and vessels plying between New York and Central and South American ports are still held here, unable to unload or load.

CIGARET CAMPAIGN PLANNED

Disciples of Christ in Convention at Cincinnati Told of Crusade.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 17.—Dr. Clarence T. Wilson of Washington, D. C., secretary of the temperance board of the Methodist church, today at the international convention of the Disciples of Christ declared in an address that the elimination of the cigarette would be the next crusade undertaken by his church.

"The cigarette impaired the health of two million soldiers in our army," he declared. "We have been sold out by the white house band to the tobacco trust."

Don't be discouraged Resinol Soap will clear your skin

Many and many a girl has a clear, healthy complexion today because some friend came to her with that sound advice. Resinol Soap not only is delightfully cleansing and refreshing, but its daily use reduces the tendency to pimples, offsets many ill effects of cosmetics, and gives nature the chance she needs to make red, rough skins white and soft.

If the skin is in bad shape, through neglect or improper treatment, a little Resinol Ointment should be used first. It will meet with the Resinol Soap, to hasten the return to normal conditions. Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment are sold by all druggists.

GERALDINE FARRAR'S LATEST PICTURE STARTS FURORE AT PRE-RELEASE SHOW

"The World and Its Woman" Draws Praise From All Critics in Philadelphia; to Be Seen at Majestic in Tulsa, Starting Sunday.

Enthusiastic reviews in all of the Philadelphia daily newspapers followed the premier showing of Geraldine Farrar in "The World and Its Woman," the stupendous Gaiety production presented to the public for the first time last Monday night at the Chestnut Street theater. The demand for "The World and Its Woman" has been so urgent that Gaiety decided to permit a number of showings a few days in advance of the release date, starting with Thursday night, following which, on Friday night at the Strand theater.

How well the drama of modern Russia was received at the Chestnut Street opera house is indicated by the enthusiasm of the Philadelphia critics who reviewed the production at length. Some of the local press in large type read: "Geraldine Farrar in Striking Film—Wartime Change in Russia Portrayed in 'The World and Its Woman'." Philadelphia Inquirer, "Swift and Keen in Russian Film—Farrar and Love Affairs of Miss Farrar Make Greatest Feature Brak."

In addition to marking the opening of Gaiety's new year, the Philadelphia presentation of the Farrar production is significant in that it introduces a season of motion pictures at the Chestnut Street opera house where the management made every effort to secure the strongest possible attraction as the premier feature. R. F. Rothapel, famed for his success in arranging artistic presentations, visited Philadelphia to superintend the opening performance.

After praising the picture as a whole, the critic of the North Amer-

HOWARD DEFENDS BUDGET SYSTEM PLAN IN ADDRESS

World's Washington Bureau.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—In an hour's speech Congressman Howard of Oklahoma today opened the discussion of the budget bill recently reported by the special committee of the House. No other speeches were made today but Chairman Goud of the committee and others will speak later.

At the conclusion of the speech members on both sides of the chamber complimented the Oklahoma man on his clear exposition of the budget system. Howard urged both parties to join together for immediate action on the bill. He said the measure was non-partisan and had been urged by Wm. Howard Taft, Governor Lowden, of Illinois, Secretary of the Treasury Glass and many others.

"Easy to you gentlemen that there must be in this country reform not only in expenditures but in the system of taxation," Congressman Howard said. "Business is today staggering under the burden of taxation. Unless we find relief I fear the outcome."
